12.00 Students assemble in the Museum, Grant Institute. Welcome to the Institute and chat about the structure of the degree courses with Dr Roger Scrutton.

1.00 Lunch in the Museum with members of staff and honours students.

1.30 onwards Visitors are split into groups and are taken on:

Tour of the Kings Buildings led by current undergraduates.

Tour of the University (Library; Teaching Buildings; Computer Centre; Pleasance Sports Centre, Pollock Halls of Residence) and the City (the Castle, Royal Mile, and Arthur's Seat) with Alex Jackson.

Informal interview with a member of staff.

The visiting days usually finish between 4.00 and 5.00pm.

Students will be dropped off at Waverley Station if required - Alex Jackson.