From theory to practice

Steve Renals

Automatic Speech Recognition – ASR Lecture 19
1 April 2019

How to apply these ideas, models, and algorithms in practice?

Consider a project which aims to recognise recordings of medical teams in an emergency resuscitation setting. The spoken interactions of the team are recorded using room-based microphones.

What are the challenges?

How might you address them?