Reviewing Project Proposals

Ask yourself the following questions:

- Is the overall architecture plausible?
- Would the overall architecture be of high business value?
- Are there serious potential flaws which have been overlooked?
- Am I convinced they could deliver the prototype on time?
- Would the prototype allow us to judge the viability of the architecture?
- Do they have a clear plan for prototyping, linked to the architecture?
- Have they shown insight into the problem?